Petition to Revive Patent Application—Failure to Pay Issue Fee Unintentional—page 1 of 3

Applicant through its attorney, mailed the completed issue fee transmittal (copy enclosed) to the United States Patent Office on February 9, 2005 with authorization to deduct the issue fee $1400.00, the publication fee $300.00 and 3 advanced copies of the patent $9.00 from our deposit account (502191). The return receipt postcard (copy enclosed) included with the issue fee transmittal was date stamped February 15, 2005.

The Office deducted $693.00 from our deposit account on February 17, 2005. At the time the Office deducted the fees, there was $693.00 in the deposit account. On that same day, February 17, 2005, a deposit of $2670.00 was made to replenish the deposit account funds. It appears that the Office may have attempted to deduct the fees mentioned above during the window of time in which the deposit/replenishment was being processed. A copy of our deposit account activity for the above-mentioned dates is enclosed herewith.

Conclusion. The attempt to pay the required issue fee, publication fee and advanced copies of the patent were made in good faith and without intentional deception; the applicant hereby requests that the Office recognize this and revive the application.
